S

ing my tongue the Sacred Myst'ry, ★ Of the glorious bo-dy made, Of the precious blood outpouring— Both the fruit of noble maid— By the King of all the nations For the world's re-demption paid. 2. Giv'n for us, to us descending, Born of virgin chaste was he, And on earth by life and teaching Spread the truth to make us free; Then with sacred cel-e-bration Closed his life most wondrously. 3. On the night of that last supper Seated with his brethren band, He observed the law most ful-ly And the feast it did command; Then, as food to his apostles, Gives himself with his own hand. 4. Word made Flesh, true bread he changes By a word, his flesh to be; Wine to blood of Christ transforming, Though the eye no change may see; Faith alone provides assurance, If the heart sin-cere should be. 5. Humbly then in ven-e-ration This great Myst'ry we adore: For the ancient rite surrenders To the new for ev-ermore:

Faith divine supplies a-bundance Where frail senses cannot soar.

6. Honor, praise and ex-al-tation To the Father and the Son, Power, too, and joy and blessing And sal-vation for all won; To the One from both proceeding, Be an equal worship done. A-men.
