VIII

O

blest Cre- a- tor of the light, ★ Who makes the day with radiance bright And o'er the forming world did call The light from cha- os first of all. 2. Your wisdom joined in meet array

The morn and eve, and named them day: Night comes with all its darkest fears, Regard your people's prayers and tears. 3. Lest sunk in sin, o'ercome by strife, They lose the gift of endless life:

While think-ing but the thoughts of time, They weave new chains of woe and crime. 4. But grant them grace that they may strain, The heav'n-ly gate and prize to gain; Each harm-ful lure a-side to cast,

And purge a-way each er-ror past. 5. So loving Father, let it be

And Son of e-qual De-i-ty, And Ho-ly Spi-rit Counsel-lor,

Who lives and reigns for ev-ermore. A-men.

THE MESSIAH, KING AND PRIEST

Christ's reign will last until all his enemies are made subject to him (1 Cor 15:25).

The Lord's revelation to my Master: †

"Sit on my right: ★

your foes I will put beneath your feet."

The Lord will wield from Zion †

your scepter of power: ★

rule in the midst of all your foes.

A prince from the day of your birth †

on the holy mountains; ★

from the womb before the dawn I begot you.

The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change. †

"You are a priest for ever, ★

a priest like Melchizedek of old."

The Master standing at your right hand ★

will shatter kings in the day of his great wrath.

He shall drink from the stream by the wayside ★

and therefore he shall lift up his head.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, ★

PSALM 113A

THE ISRAELITES ARE DELIVERED FROM THE BONDAGE OF EGYPT

You too left Egypt when, at baptism, you renounced that world which is at enmity with God (Saint Augustine).

When Israel came forth from Egypt, ★

Jacob's sons from an alien people,

Judah became the Lord's temple, ★

Israel became his kingdom.

The sea fled at the sight: ★

the Jordan turned back on its course,

the mountains leapt like rams ★

and the hills like yearling sheep.

Why was it, sea, that you fled, ★

that you turned back, Jordan, on your course?

Mountains, that you leapt like rams, ★

hills, like yearling sheep?

Tremble, O earth, before the Lord, ★

in the presence of the God of Jacob,

who turns the rock into a pool ★

and flint into a spring of water.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, ★

and to the Holy Spirit:

as it was in the beginning, is now, ★

and will be for ever. Amen.

In order that they might be satisfied, Jesus said to his disciples: "Gather the fragments that are left over, lest they perish." Thus they gathered them, and they filled twelve baskets with the fragments, which had come from the five barley loaves, which were left over from that which they had eaten.

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name. He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, he has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children for ever. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
