

PSALTER

SUNDAY OR SOLEMNITY AFTER FIRST VESPERS

O Sacred Banquet, in which Christ becomes our food, the memory of his passion is celebrated, the soul is filled with grace, and the pledge of future glory is given to us.

℣. You gave them bread from heaven.

℟. Containing every blessing.

Let us pray. O God, who in this wonderful sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion, grant us, we pray, so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves the fruits of your redemption. Through Christ our Lord. ℟. Amen.

Stand

O

God, come to my as-sistance. ℟. O Lord, make haste to help me. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forev-er. Amen.

Al-le-lu-ia.

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE

Kneel

I confess to Almighty God, to Blessed Mary ever virgin, to Blessed Dominic, our Father, to all the saints, and to you my brothers (and sisters), that I have sinned through my own fault; in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do. I beseech you to pray for me.

℣. May Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, keep us safe and strengthen us in every good work, and bring us to everlasting life.

℟. Amen.

PSALM 4

THANKSGIVING

The resurrection of Christ was God's supreme and wholly marvelous work (Saint Augustine).

When I call, answer me, O God of justice; *
 from anguish you released me, have mercy and hear me!
 O men, how long will your hearts be closed, *
 will you love what is futile and seek what is false?
 It is the Lord who grants favors to those whom he loves; *
 the Lord hears me whenever I call him.
 Fear him; do not sin: ponder on your bed and be still. *
 Make justice your sacrifice, and trust in the Lord.
 "What can bring us happiness?" many say. *
 Let the light of your face shine on us, O Lord.
 You have put into my heart a greater joy *
 than they have from abundance of corn and new wine.
 I will lie down in peace and sleep comes at once *
 for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety.
 Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
 and to the Holy Spirit:
 as it was in the beginning, is now, *
 and will be for ever. Amen.

READING

Dt 6:4-7

Hear, O Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord alone! Therefore, you shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength. Take to heart these words which I enjoin on you today. Drill them into your children. Speak of them at home and abroad, whether you are busy or at rest.

and abides in the shade of the Almighty says to the Lord: “My refuge, ★

my stronghold, my God in whom I trust!"

It is he who will free you from the snare ★

of the fowler who seeks to destroy you;

he will conceal you with his pinions ★

and under his wings you will find refuge.

You will not fear the terror of the night ★

nor the arrow that flies by day,

nor the plague that prowls in the darkness ★

nor the scourge that lays waste at noon.

A thousand may fall at your side, ★

ten thousand fall at your right,

you, it will never approach; ★

his faithfulness is buckler and shield.

Your eyes have only to look ★

to see how the wicked are repaid,

you who have said: “Lord, my refuge!” ★

and have made the Most High your dwelling.

Upon you no evil shall fall, ★

no plague approach where you dwell.

For you has he commanded his angels, ★
to keep you in all your ways.
They shall bear you upon their hands ★
lest you strike your foot against a stone.
On the lion and the viper you will tread ★
and trample the young lion and the dragon.
Since he clings to me in love, I will free him; ★
protect him for he knows my name.
When he calls I shall answer: "I am with you," ★
I will save him in distress and give him glory.
With length of life I will content him; ★
I shall let him see my saving power.

Lord, make haste and answer; ★

In the morning let me know your love ★

for I put my trust in you.

Make me know the way I should walk: ★
to you I lift up my soul.
Rescue me, Lord, from my enemies; ★
I have fled to you for refuge.
Teach me to do your will ★
for you, O Lord, are my God.
Let your good spirit guide me ★
in ways that are level and smooth.
For your name's sake, Lord, save my life; ★
in your justice save my soul from distress.

PSALM 87 (88)

PRAYER OF A VERY SICK PERSON

This is your hour when darkness reigns (Luke 22:53).

Lord my God, I call for help by day; *

I cry at night before you.

Let my prayer come into your presence. *

O turn your ear to my cry.

For my soul is filled with evils; *

my life is on the brink of the grave.

I am reckoned as one in the tomb: *

I have reached the end of my strength,

like one alone among the dead; *

like the slain lying in their graves;

like those you remember no more, *

cut off, as they are, from your hand.

You have laid me in the depths of the tomb, *

in places that are dark, in the depths.

Your anger weighs down upon me: *

I am drowned beneath your waves.

You have taken away my friends * and made me hateful in their sight.

Imprisoned, I cannot escape; *

my eyes are sunken with grief.

I call to you, Lord, all the day long; *

to you I stretch out my hands.

Will you work your wonders for the dead? *

Will the shades stand and praise you?

Will your love be told in the grave *

or your faithfulness among the dead?

Will your wonders be known in the dark ★
or your justice in the land of oblivion?
As for me, Lord, I call to you for help: ★
in the morning my prayer comes before you.
Lord, why do you reject me? ★
Why do you hide your face?
Wretched, close to death from my youth, ★
I have borne your trials; I am numb.
Your fury has swept down upon me; ★
your terrors have utterly destroyed me.
They surround me all the day like a flood, ★
they assail me all together.
Friend and neighbor you have taken away: ★
my one companion is darkness.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, ★
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, ★
and will be for ever. Amen.

 and will be for ever. Amen.

CONCLUDING PRAYER

All-powerful God keep us united with your Son in his death and burial so that we may rise to new life with him, who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

℟. Amen.

BLESSING

May the all-powerful Lord grant us a restful night and a peaceful death.

℟. Amen.

Je-sus, redemption all divine, ★ Whom here we love, for whom we pine, God, working out cre-ation's plan, And, in the lat- ter time, made man: 2. What love of yours was that which led To take our woes upon your head, And pangs and cru-el death to bear, To ransom us from death's despair! 3. You pierced the halls of Limbo bare, Gave freedom to your captives there; And now you sit in victor's pride, Triumphant at the Father's side. 4. Let ver- y mer- cy force you still To spare us, conquer-ing each ill; We pray you grant us our request, That seeing you we may be blest.
